Jeffersonian arguments

Based on your knowledge of Jefferson and reading his views,

You are to write a paragraph report to president Washington explaining why, according to Thomas Jefferson, the Necessary and proper clause gives the government too much power and is a threat to the states with regards to Hamilton’s plan for creating a National Bank.

I. Introduction
   A. Grabber-
   B. Rephrase the concern of Jefferson highlighted in bold letters
   C. Define the Necessary and proper clause
   D. Evidence- Explain how this argument proves Hamilton should not be able to create a national bank and the elastic clause is dangerous. Use at least two quotes from the activity.

Hamiltonian arguments

You are to write a paragraph report to president Washington explaining why, according to Alexander Hamilton, the Necessary and proper clause gives the central government the power to create a National Bank.

A. grabber
   B. Rephrase Hamilton’s belief in the necessary and proper” clause
   C. Define the Necessary and proper clause
   D. Evidence— Explain how the Necessary and proper clause and the creation of the national bank are good for the government and the country. Use at least two quotes from the activity.